

Rays of sunshine

It was not a day to wine and dine but a meaningful theme marked the 79th Anniversary of the Sunday Observer. The staff visited the Children's Cancer ward at Maharagama and gifted urgently required medicines for the treatment of the children suffering from leukaemia. It was heart-breaking to see them fighting a lone battle towards recovery, and the Observer staff mingled with the children and their mothers to spread sunshine and laughter into the lives of the children. Cakes donated by the hotels Cinnamon Grand and Ceylon Continental were cut and served to the children and nurses in the childrens wards.

Sarath Kongahage Director Editorial, and Rosanne Koelmeyer Anderson Associate Editor (Features) handing over a package of vital medicines, to the nurses in the children's ward. Looking on are Mahinda Abeysundera Editor Dinamina, Rasanga Harischandra, Director Legal and Administration, Chaminda Priyashantha, Director Finance, Sanjeewa Siribaddena, Director Marketing and Training and Dinesh Weerawansa, Editor Sunday Observer. Silumina Chief Editor Karunadasa Sooriyarachchi, Daily News Chief Editor Bandula Jayasekara and Thinakaran Editor T.Subramaniam also joined in our endeavour.

Pix by Kavindra Perera

