

Corporate COOL

Wear a new thought this week!

In spite of his busy schedule as Managing Director/CEO of Chevron Lubricants Lanka Limited, KISHU GOMES takes time off to model exclusively for the Sunday Observer, a set of unfussy, totally comfortable designs for the corporate man.

After all, fashion is not something restricted to celebrities and models. Fashion is something each one of us deals with everyday. Even those of us who say we don't care about what we wear choose clothes every morning which say a lot about us and how we feel about our day ahead.

As Caltex chief Kishu demonstrates here, to quote Cynthia Durcanin of Elle Magazine "Fashion is a state of mind. A spirit, an extension of one's self. Fashion talks, it can be an understated whisper, a high-energy scream or an all knowing wink and a smile. Most of all fashion is about being comfortable with yourself, translating self-esteem into a personal style."

Worth taking a second look. Aditha.
