

Bridal Fair 2008

Every bride deserves a dress that reflects her inner radiance and elegance. A selection of figure-flattering styles were the cynosure of all eyes when eminent bridal designers flaunted an array of novel trends at the Bridal Fair 2008 last week at the Sri Lanka Exhibition and Convention Centre (SLECC).

From the conventional Bridal dress to the deep sweetheart neck line sleeveless fitted and wide skirts worked with sequin, bead work and bows in white and off white satin and chiffon with frills and the beautiful sarees stole the show. Here we feature creations by renowned beauticians and bridal designers Chrissy Rozairo, Chula Nanayakkara Ariyaratne and Hasini Gunasekera who displayed their seasonal collection with dainty accessories to match. - Rosanne

Chic and appealing

