

Kadiringamar Relief Village

An aerial view of the Kadiringamar Relief Village

A high ranking Government delegation led by Senior Presidential Advisor Basil Rajapaksa MP visited the Menik Farm welfare centre, Chettikulam, Vavuniya for the displaced children. Disaster Relief and Resettlement Minister Rishard Bathiudeen, is also in the picture

The Government has set up three villages to resettle displaced civilians arriving from the Vanni. Kadiringamar Village set up in the former Menik Farm area is one of them.

A high ranking government delegation led by Senior Presidential Advisor, Basil Rajapaksa, MP visited the Kadiringamar Village and inspected the facilities provided to the villagers including the recently opened school for children of families that arrived from the Vanni.

Children in their new school

A makeshift health center

Temporary houses for the displaced

