

Holy Cross College - Kalutara

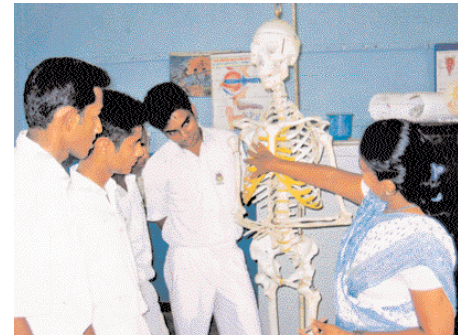

Academic 'n' extra-curricular activities

The Junior Choir with the teachers in charge, Mrs. Sujeeva Fernando and Mrs. Laurine Rupasinghe.

An item presented by the Western Drama Society.

Science students following a lesson.

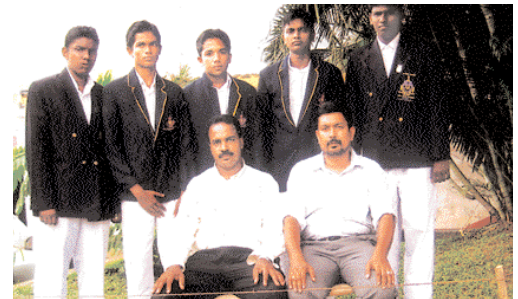

The Holy Cross College, Kalutara since its origin in 1880, has made vast strides in both the academic and extra-curricular spheres, providing spiritual and intellectual guidance to the students. This has been possible due to the selfless and dedicated services of the Principal and staff.

Featured are some of the events, sections of the school and groups covering various fields:

Text and Pix: W.T.J.S. Kaviratne, Ambalagoda Special Corr.

The newly added state of the art auditorium - the show piece of the school.

Members of the Young Entrepreneurs Company, affiliated to the Commerce Section of the College with Tiran Jagath and Anton S. Fernando.

The Art Society Members with Principal and some of the staff.

The Kandyan Dancing Group in action. The Principal and Sanath Rupasinghe are also in the picture.

The Prefects' Union members with the Master in charge, Niroshan Fernando and Principal Rev. Brother Ranjith Perera

Primary Section students.

