

A day of fun and face painting!

Nuwangi Gammarachchi blissfully unaware of make up artist Sarika's ideas.

Sameeri Perera sporting a painted full face created by Dharini

Krishani Paliwardena facing Nirmala's world of circles and dots.

Agatha Ranasinghe subjects to artist Mary's free form designs.

Nadeeka Senadeera seems to enjoy Sarika's strokes of the brush.

Krishani Karunaratne enjoying the start of Nirmala's creativity.

Randima Udewarna - transformed by make up artist Nayani.

Thushari Nilusha - oops! she never bargained for Imashis creativity.

Anushka Padukka - is it the beginning or the end of Nirmala's ideas?

Gowri Weerasuriya - begins to realise what the involvement will be at the hands of Sarika.

There was an overwhelming response for the voting of Ms Sunday Observer - Most Popular Contestant and we are sure that by the time the day of Ms Lanka pageant comes around we will be inundated with your coupons. Keep on sending in as many coupons as you like to help your favourite contestant to carry off the glittering crown of Ms Sunday Observer.

As you can see from the pictures published in our column today the contestants have had a good time enjoying themselves experiencing face painting and Mehendi art done during the past week by Technique International team. "Now begins the hard work" says Gwendoline Kukulbeva, Organiser of Ms Lanka 2010. "Yesterday (Saturday 21) photographs were taken for the Mini Title Ms Beautiful Smile."

Last Sunday (August 15) we published the pictures of the contestants in the running for Ms Photogenic. After Ms Beautiful Smile the selection for Ms Exotic Eyes will take place. So remember to groom yourself and vie for the glamour stakes, which comes your way once-in-a-lifetime.

Technique International in collaboration with the Sunday Observer Sri Lanka's leading newspaper will present the Ms Lanka pageant this year too. The other sponsors are Pico Events, softlogic, Sterling Flowers and Trendywear.
