

Beauties in Diyaredda

BY MAHES PERERA

Draped in attractive colourful Diyared-das, a single flower in their hair, the contestants were requested to perform a Kalagedi Dance to be selected for the Mini title Ms. Crowning Glory. This was the exciting and unusual happening at the Panorama Executive Residences - sponsors for the event which was held on Sunday October 31. According to the presenters Technique International, the contestants were to be judged not for "the longest hair" but for a "healthy head of hair". Fifteen contestants succeeded in surviving the careful scrutiny of the judges and the winner will be announced at the final next month.

Apart from the judging, the day for the contestant was specially arranged by Technique International to be a day of fun and relaxation. Did they enjoy themselves? Sure they did as you can see in the pictures published today.

The judges for the event were Naslin Jayawardana - Manager, Business Development, Sithara Gangabaddage - Business Development Executive, Reza Rezaeaha - Civil Engineer, Poyry Energy AG from Panorama Executive Residences, Sanjeewa Batuwatta, Asoka Casie Chetty - Co-ordinator Ms. Lanka Pageantry and Rochelle Fox - Ms Lanka 1995.
