Renowned for her creative mix and match her special flair in colour fusion, embroidery of all forms including the use of wood embroidery, Talat Hafeez's collection of many salwar kameez' that evening more than endorsed the view that she had the rare creativity to enhance a plain and simple salwar kameez into a in-vogue fashion statement.

Red was a predominant colour followed by orange flamboyant pink and sunshine yellow. Colour combinations were striking and elegant especially the outfits in black and brown, black and orange, white and salmon pink.
