ed and awarded prizes at the main event.
* At the main event the finalists will have the opportunity to showcase their talent and gain exposure on an international platform. All finalists will further have the opportunity of meeting with our main sponsors who are pioneers in the fashion industry.
* There will be a special title for the most popular contestant. For this a special coupon will be out every week for the general public to vote and the winner will be announced at the main event.
* A part of the proceeds will be donated to the Sri Lankadhara Society Ltd in aid of building a classroom for their Pre-school students.

Now's the opportunity to make your secret dreams come true!
For the first time the Asian Fashion Designer 2011 is open to all fashion designers and designer institutions and most of all to young aspiring designers who want to make a name for themselves.
The opportunity to display your creative fashions has been made possible by Princy Butain a leading designer in Sri Lanka who has over 20 years of experience in the fashion industry.
Entries for this prestigious competition which is being held in collaboration with Sunday Observer will be received until September 30 - the closing date. So hurry sit down draw your sketches making use of that creative talent that is in you for the seven categories that are required for your participation. But before all that mail in your participation by posting the coupon that is published in today's page. Just imagine if you win the competition your creations will be showcased not only on the run way here in Sri Lanka but also on many Asian catwalks!

The judging panel will comprise elite industrialists and designers in the region.
The event will be held towards the end of this year at a leading hotel in Colombo. The date and venue will be published in due course.
* After closing entries, an initial screening process will take place to select the qualifying applicants, who will be called for an interview.
* Those applicants are required to call over for the interview with sketches pertaining to all seven categories. The judges will then select the qualifying sketch of each applicant.
A contestant can showcase only one fashion category at the main event. The winners will be select-
