Miss Tourism International 2009

BY MAHES PERERA

The response to be selected as Mr & Miss Hill Country was tremendous!

Many entries were received from contestants in the Kandy, Badulla, Mawanela and Nuwara Eliya districts, which reflects the eagerness to participate in the contest and represent Sri Lanka at the prestigious Mr & Miss Sri Lanka. According to the Presenters Big Time Image Makers the contestants are now going through preliminary interviews to vie for the title of Mr & Miss Hill Country.

The top four in each segment will have the opportunity to walk the runway in the four world pageants. The selection for Mr & Miss Hill Country will be held in the month of September at Queen's Hotel, Kandy. Any late entries during the coming week will be accepted and your late entry should be addressed to Mr & Miss Hill Country, 40, 2nd Floor, Waidya Road, Dehiwela.

The four world pageants the winners of Mr & Miss Sri Lanka have the wonderful opportunity to compete in Miss Earth, Miss Tourism International, Model of the World, Asian Model Search and Petite International. Imagine yourself sashying on the international catwalks and vying with the other contestants and who knows if Lady Luck smiles on you, then it will be you who will be wearing the glittering crown!

Miss Tourism International for instance is an international event which is also a platform to foster the spirit of friendship and goodwill and promote international understanding not only among the delegates, but also throughout the world. The delegates will in their stay during the working of the contest have an insight into one another's national cultures, customs and traditions during their time together.

Mr & Miss Sri Lanka 2011 is presented in association with the Sunday Observer the print media sponsor, Sri Lanka Rupavahini Corporation, Real Radio and FUJI.
