The Presenters, Big Time Image Makers are busy training those who applied from Kandy, Badulla, Mawanella and Nuwara Eliya districts to participate in the Mr. and Miss Hill Country. The response has been tremendous and the selection which will be held this month (September) at the Queen's Hotel, Kandy is being eagerly looked forward to by the contestants. If you haven't applied for the contest and if you are living in Kandy, Badulla, Mawanella or Nuwara Eliya, this is your final call so to speak. Rush your entry to Mr. and Miss Hill Country, 40, 2nd Floor Waidya Road, Dehiwala.

Big Time Image Makers wish to inform contestants for Mr. and Miss Sri Lanka who will have the opportunity to participate in the world pageants for Miss Earth, Miss Tourism International, Model of the World and Petite International that through the regional events they have opened up vistas for maximum participation from contestants. It provides opportunities for boys and girls who are not based in Colombo to be a part of the big image. The presenters visit these regions, train and groom the potential contender in their home towns.

From each regional event four to six contenders will be selected for the national event. The Regional winners will be announced at the national finals. This system according to the Presenters will be a stepping stone to a contestant who may not be a national winner, but with a regional title he or she can move up the ladder of success in the fashion world. Currently the girls and boys of the Hill Country region are being trained for Mr. and Miss Hill Country learning the finer points of a contest of this nature which will be held at Queen's Hotel, Kandy.

Ms. Petite International 2010

The international events are a platform to foster the spirit of friendship and goodwill and promote international understanding not only among the delegates but also throughout the world.

Mr. and Miss Sri Lanka 2011 is presented in association with the Sunday Observer the print media sponsor, Sri Lanka Rupavahini Corporation, Real Radio and the official film FUJI.
