President's Diary

President Mahinda Rajapaksa observes relegious rites at the Jaya Pirith Sajjayanaya ceremony to invoke blessings on the country.

PIX BY SUDATH SILVA

Wana Divi Varuna, a book on the beauty on Sri Lankan jungles compiled by Medical Director Sri Lanka Navy Dr. Rear Admiral Lalith Ekanayaka being presented to President Rajapaksa.

President Mahinda Rajapaksa and First Lady Shiranthi Rajapaksa participate in the Jaya Pirith Sajjayanaya to invoke blessings on the country.

President Rajapaksa unveila the plaque to open the laboratory complex at the Government Analyst's Department.

President Rajapaksa launched the annual national Ranaviru Commemoration Month to honour War Heroes by purchasing the first Ranaviru Flag from Ranaviru Seva Authority Chairperson Padma Wettewa at Temple Trees.

A book comprising 189 speeches made by Irrigation and Water Resources Management Minister Nimal Siripala de Silva authored by Upul Jayasinghe being presented to President Rajapaksa at Temple Trees.

President Rajapksa presents a token to an health official in appreciation of her service at a ceremony to mark International Family Health Day

SLFP Parliamentarian J.R.P. Suriyapperuma presents a book authored by him titled Lokayata Kawluwak to President Rajapaksa at Temple Trees.

Back