

World Conference on Youth 2014 Sri Lanka

Delegates of the World Conference on Youth 2014 which took place in Hambantota and Colombo, from May 6 to 10 with President Mahinda Rajapaksa at the Ruhunu Magampura Mahinda Rajapaksa International Conference Hall in Hambantota

Delegates at the Round Table Plenary on Environmental Protection, Emergency Preparedness and Youth Centred Urbanisation of the World Conference on Youth (WCY) 2014 engaged in their discussion at the Bandaranaike Memorial International Conference Hall (BMICH), Colombo, Sri Lanka on Thursday, May 8, 2014

Members of the head table Global Coordinator David Collis, Moderator of the event Anoka Abeyratne, Sri Lanka's Minister of Science and Technology Patali Champrika Ranaawake, Helene Opsal of the UN Habitat Program and Member of the United Nations Environmental Program, Nhathan Nguyen are seen following the proceedings intently at the Round Table Plenary on Environmental Protection, Emergency Preparedness and Youth Centred Urbanisation of the World Conference on Youth (WCY) 2014 at the Bandaranaike Memorial International Conference Hall (BMICH), Colombo, Sri Lanka on Thursday, May 8, 2014

Representing the government of Myanmar Dr. Myat Ohn Khin - The Union Minister and the Minister of Social Welfare, Relief and Resettlement in Myanmar (left) and Anushka Wijesingha from the Institute of Policy Studies who represented youth (far right) address the audience on Poverty Eradication and Food Security

Ms. Gita Sabharwal, from UNDP, addressing the audience at the roundtable session on Realizing Peace, Reconciliation and Ending Violence at the Bandaranaike Memorial International Conference Hall (BMICH) Friday (May 9), with the participation of (from L-R) Ms. Stephanie Siriwardhana, facilitator, Khalid Ali Omar, Minister of Sports and Youth of Somalia, and Ms. Shobana, member of Sri Lanka Youth Parliament