

Achievements & Events

The Sinhala and Hindu New Year celebrations organised by Flower Birds preschool, Tissa Mawatha, Kelaniya was held at the Vijaya Kumaratunga grounds, Peliyagoda. Here children participate in the western band.

Pic: A. Maduraveeran, Colombo North Gr. Cor.

Twins Roshell Nathasha Askey of Ave Maria Convent, Negombo and her brother Raveen Nimesh Askey of St. Peter's College, Colombo 4. Roshell won a gold medal in the under 12 (girls) category at the Sri Lanka National Youth Chess Championship 2014, while Raveen secured a silver medal and was first runner-up in the boys' category. The tournament was organised by the Chess Federation of Sri Lanka and the championship meet was held at Royal College, Colombo 7.

Pic: H. Fernando, Negombo Spl. Cor.

The Prefects' investiture of the Sri Sumanajothi College, Ingiriya organised by the principal Y.S. Sirira Kumara and the staff was held at the college premises recently. Here Divisional Secretary, Ingiriya Champa Upasena pins the badge on a prefect.

Pic: Priyadarshani Kahawala, Ingiriya Central Gr. Cor.

Children of Whiz Kids Montessori House of Children, Mt. Lavinia held their Avurudu festival at the school premises recently. Here children take part in the events.

Students of Sri Sumanajothi Primary College, Ingiriya won the championship at the Inter School sports meet 2014 in the Horana education zone.

Pic: Priyadarshani Kahawala, Ingiriya Central Gr. Cor.

Sathkorala Free Media Association of the Kurunegala District Provincial Journalists organised a New Year festival at Katupotha recently. NWP Chief Minister Dayasiri Jayasekara was the chief guest on the occasion. Students from government schools and children of journalists took part in the musical chair contest.

Pic: S.M. Wijyaratne, Kurunegala Cor.

Children of Sumaga preschool, Kalutara North take part in the balloon bursting event at the Avurudu festival held recently.

