Grand finale on August 2

Prathiba heads penultimate week's voting

Prathiba Vidyarthne increased her vote tally to 6,239 to climb five positions up and head the latest voting of the Most Popular contestant at the Derana-Veet Miss Sri Lanka 2014 for Miss Earth conducted in association with print media partner the Sunday Observer.

She was placed only fifth last week with 3,489 votes but made a magnificent surge to take the lead in the penultimate week's voting for the Most Popular Contestant who would be crowned Miss Sunday Observer.

Last week's leader fared poorly to drop to eighth place while Ashiya Dasanayake (5,977) and Imaya Liyanage (5,893) made steady progress to advance to the second and third places respectively. Shanika Chamini who headed the list two weeks ago is now placed fourth with 5,714 votes. In the fifth place is Shamali Dilshani, followed by Shialin Divyanjali and Tharindi Fernando.

The winner of the Most Popular contest will be crowned Miss Sunday Observer and become a mini pageant winner of the Derana - Veet Miss Sri Lanka 2014 grand finale on Saturday (2) at the Hotel Citrus, Waskaduwa.

The final voting coupon is published today and the voting coupons will be accepted until 12 noon on Friday (August 1). The decision of the Editor-in-Chief of the Sunday Observer is final.

The winners of five main mini pageants, Beautiful Hair, Beautiful Legs, Beautiful Skin, Miss Photogenic and Miss Most popular Sunday Observer will be announced at the grand finale.
