

Asian Games highlights in Incheon

Tight security at the entrance to the Athletes Village which houses 9,700 competitors and officials, including the 111-member Sri Lanka contingent.

Sri Lanka contingent at the opening ceremony with Commonwealth Games gold medallist Chinthana Vidanage carrying the Lion Flag

China won the first gold medal of 2014 Asian Games. Winner China's Mengyuan Zhang, center, silver medalist South Korea's Jung Jee-hae, left, and bronze medalist India's Shweta Chaudhry pose for the media during the medal ceremony for the 10m Air Pistol Women at the Ongnyeong International Shooting Range.

Action during the third place play-off match between Sri Lanka and China. Sri Lanka beat China by five wickets to win the bronze medal. Pic: Prince Gunasekera

Sri Lanka's women's cricket team celebrate at Yeonhui cricket grounds after winning the bronze medal. Pic: Prince Gunasekera

North Korea's team officials wave their national flags during their first round soccer match against China.

Winner India's Jitu Rai, center, silver medalist Vietnam's Nguyen Hoang Phuong, left, and bronze medalist China's Wang Zhiwei pose for the media during the medal ceremony for the 50m Pistol Men at the Ongnyeong International Shooting Range

Bangladesh women's cricket team which won the silver medal

Sri Lanka's men's beach volleyball team members Jude Mahesh Perera and Wasantha Ratnapala speak to media after their preliminary round victory against Bangladesh at Songdo Global University courts. Pic: Prince Gunasekera

Sri Lanka's men's beach volleyball team - Jude Mahesh Perera and Wasantha Ratnapala which reached the last 16 in action during their preliminary round 2-0 victory against Bangladesh at Songdo Global University courts. Pic: Prince Gunasekera

Pakistan women's cricket team celebrate after beating Bangladesh in the final to win the women's T20 cricket gold medal.

Taiwan's Wang Hsiang Hwei, right, and China's Li Ying attack the ball during their match at the 17th Asian Games in Incheon