

Dwani '15

– an evening of music and dance

BY MAHES PERERA

Four years after a successful show that took audiences by storm, the Dance Society at Bishop's College, will be staging the much talked about 'Dwani' which will become a reality on January 23 at the Bishop's College Auditorium from 6.30 p.m. This is the second in the series and the schools taking part will be S Thomas' College, Mount Lavinia, Trinity College, Kandy, Methodist College, Colombo and Bishops' College, Colombo 3.

The live show will feature over 200 talented students in Oriental dance and music. The inaugural event was held in 2011 and it turned out to be an overwhelming success.

The aim in organising 'Dwani' according to the administrators, is to bring together talented youngsters of the different schools and to provide them with a platform to showcase their talents to a wider appreciative audience.

According to P.W.T. Dilan master in charge of the Dance Society at Bishop's College, 'Dwani' 15 will be an authentic evening of music, dancing and drumming. He said that he was pleased with the interest shown by the students in the intricacies of the dancing and the drumming.

He is responsible for the choreography, costumes and make-up and would like to inform music lovers that tickets for the show priced at Rs. 750,500 and 400 are available at the Bishop's College, Auditorium.

A special mention must be made of the invaluable support and advice given by the Principal Sharmila Gunetilleke and Vice Principal Chemali Herath. A lot of hard work has also been put in by the President Manisha Ratnayake, the Secretary Purani Galloluwe and the band leader Chamathi de Alwis.

The aim in organising Dwani according to the administrators, is to bring together talented youngsters of the different schools and to provide them with a platform to showcase their talents to a wider appreciative audience

