American Celebrity Photographer and TV personality, Nigel Barker concluded his weeklong tour of Sri Lanka on a high note and a promise, claiming "I had an amazing time in Sri Lanka, and I will return."

"I've made so many great memories during my trip in Sri Lanka and so have my wife and kids. The experiences we had the opportunity of experiencing thanks to Cinnamon Hotels & Resorts were breathtaking, invigorating and life-changing. I will most certainly be back, to feel this magical experience again," he said

Barker and his family who were in Sri Lanka from July 15 to 23 and were hosted by Cinnamon Hotels & Resort, enjoyed stays at Cinnamon Lodge Habarana, Cinnamon Citadel Kandy, Cinnamon Bey Beruwala and Cinnamon Wild Yala.

Barker also endorsed Cinnamon's Leopard Project by participating in the donation of a Steel Pen to a cattle farmer in Yala. His tour concluded with a half day workshop on Fashion Photography, Modelling for Success, Building and Managing your Brand and his Inspirational Story on his career.

Prior to departing from the country he conducted a book signing event, where he showcased his latest book 'Models of Influence'.

Featured here are some of the memorable moments of Barker's visit
