Tonight's the nite!

D-Day at last!

It's time for the most glorious and the most exciting moment of the contest - the grand finale!

We are sure that our contestants must be keeping their fingers crossed, and their hearts must be beating in excitement too! Well, whatever, we want to thank all our participants for being with us and contributing to make this event a glamorous one.

Besides enjoying themselves the contestants gained knowledge about the fashion and textile industry participated in workshops, training programs, and day-outs and having fun and entertainment.

We believe that this was not only a contest, but a superb chance for those who came from every part of the island to build friendships, get to know each other, share experiences, and create unity and harmony among all and learn the value of team work.

It certainly has been successful team work, because without the help of our participants, sponsors, and readers, it wouldn't have been such a success.

For all those who were not selected..hey don't worry! There's always a next time! You were amazing. Hope to see you next year too! Thank you once again and bye for now! Cheers!! Remember be in your seats by 4.45 p.m. today.
