The Certificates Award Ceremony of the Russian School of Ballet and Dancing was held at the Russian Centre in Colombo recently. 364 students received their certificates, awards and medals. The school, affiliated with the National Ballet Academy, Moscow, helps students understand the difference between ballet as a meagre dance routine to a life style that transcends on and beyond the stage. Ballet is a way of life that instils discipline and strength, not just in the effort it takes to pirouettes but as individuals. The Chief Guest was Alexander Karchava, Russian Ambassador in Sri Lanka and Maldives, Chief Guest Colonel Dmitry A. Mitry A. Mikhaylovskiy, Military Air and Naval Attache of Embassy of the Russian Federation in Sri Lanka. Andrey M. Nazarkin Counsellor of the Russian Embassy and the Director of the Russian Centre in Colombo, Buddhapriya Ramanayake, Chief Executive Officer of the Russian Centre in Colombo, Chandi Aluvihare, the Cultural Officer of The Russian Centre in Colombo, teachers, parents and the staff of the Russian Centre were present.
