Over 180 outfits, showcasing 20 brands, shown to advantage by 24 Sri Lankan leading models, made the inaugural Royal Turf Club SLABA Runway 2016 an unforgettable event, flying high the Sri Lankan flag of fashion.

The apparel industry, JAAF, government and private sector heads, as well as Sri Lanka's leading fashion and beauty icons, were present to witness our very own home grown brands take to the ramp and wow the audience. SLABA is poised to take the local industry to another level, taking local brands to global markets, aided and abetted no doubt by their Title Partner the Royal Turf Club and the Export Development Board.
