

ICC WOMEN'S WORLD CUP
India 2013

When Lankan lasses humbled defending champs

A square cut by a Lankan cricketer

Player of the Match Eshani Lokusuriya

Sri Lankan cricketers beat the much-fancied England Team in the Women's World Cup match with Eshani Kaushalya with a half century including 3 sixes seeing the home side through on the final ball.

Sri Lankan players celebrate after winning the match

We present a photographic montage of the nerve-tingling match that took place in Mumbai on Friday.
Pix : Courtesy Internet

Dilani Manodara hits the winning runs

An English player drives on the on-side

The gleeful cricketers

... Celebrations

A dejected England player walks back to the pavilion

Sri Lankan team celebrates a wicket

A massive six over long-on by a Lankan cricketer

